

Date: Dec. 6, 2018

Peterborough Fire Services attends BWXT NEC for unusual odour

On Thursday, December 6th, 2018 at approximately 4:15 p.m., an employee noticed an unusual odour in an operating area. The employee made proper notification to the emergency response team, and Peterborough Fire Services briefly attended the site to investigate. It was determined that the odour originated from routine maintenance work being conducted on the roof and posed no health or safety risk to the public or employees.