

Job Opportunities

and Economic Benefits

- Adding ~175 positions to support the expansion.
- Positions will be primarily filled by residents of the Tri-Cities Area
- Positions are high-paying jobs with a mix of personnel with vocational training and college graduates
- These positions will allow for employees to live locally, benefiting the local economy
- Project provides tax revenues locally, enabling additional reinvestment in the community