

Jonesborough Site Expansion

New and Renovated Facilities

- New buildings utilized for expansion of high purity depleted uranium processing at the site
- Buildings will follow all local, state and federal codes and regulations
- Comprehensive safety, design and regulatory reviews will be conducted prior to construction and production start
 - Reviews conducted by Washington County, TDEC and appropriate federal agencies
- Facilities will not have the capability to process enriched uranium materials

